Day of Champions Tournament

Lake Pointe wins season and the Finals

An exciting feature of this season was that there were five teams that were evenly matched. They came into March separated by just 10 points. Three of the teams had turns in the top spot in the prior five months.

Marimont started the day in 5th, moved up to 3rd in the morning and was the first to quiz into the Finals. The LP Defenders had been first in November and reclaimed that spot in the morning and quizzed next into the Finals.

The LP Tribe started the morning in 3rd but had to quiz their way into the Finals from 4th in the playoffs.

The Defenders were first on the board as Sophia Fike scored on question 2. Top quizzier Katie Baugh then scored three times for Marimont, interrupted only by a score from the Tribe's Cordelia Fike. After question 7, it was 60-20-20. The Defenders quickly tied on scores by Sophia and Megan Yonker, making it 60-60-20 after question 9.

Down the stretch, Cordelia scored twice more to freeze without error and get back in on a toss-up, so question 15 started with the score 60-60-90. It looked like a team was going to win with just one person scoring all the points, and that just doesn't happen in the Finals. The Defenders could get a bonus and tie only if Erin Yonker got question 15, and that's what she did. Sophia made no mistake on the tie-breaker. What a consummate team victory!!

Marimont RefreshUrMemory - 60;
LP Preprd 2 Give a Defense - 110;
LP Belong to a Diff. Tribe - 90

in memorium

- November 16, 2019 In the minds of at least four intrepid quizzers, this was the year to win it all. Cordelia and Sophia Fike, Kaleb Caron-Martin and Owen Parker formed a team that (along with substitute Curtis Parker) conquered the Great Lakes Tournament in fine style. See the November newsletter for some of their exploits there.
- December 31, 2019 Chinese Health officials informed the World Health Organization about a cluster of 41 patients with a mysterious pneumonia. Eventually a novel coronavirus was identified, SARS-CoV-2, causing a novel illness, COVID-19.
- January 27, 2020 President Trump formed the White House Coronavirus Task Force.
- January 30, 2020 The WHO declared a global public health emergency.
- February 15, 2020 The team of Cordelia, Sophia, Kaleb and Owen conquered the Snowflake Open Tournament in Hummelstown, Pennsylvania. Now, if there was only a way for the four of them to stay together as a team, all that was left to conquer was the Chicago Tournament— "the World Finals".
- March 10, 2020 Governor Whitmer issued Executive Order 2020-4, declaring a State of Emergency in Michigan.
- March 13, 2020 President Trump declared a National State of Emergency.
- March 14, 2020 With a number of precautions taken and not without some trepidation, Detroit Bible Quizzing held its Day of Champions Tournament. Qualifying for positions on the teams to go to the Chicago Tournament remained a big motivator and resulted in big days for Most Improved Quizzer Anna Sanchez, Destiny Lloyd and top rookie Rebekah Catanzaro. Along with the four champions from the two prior tournaments and with top quizzer Katie Baugh, there were then eight Detroit quizzers raring to go to Chicago.
- March 23, 2020 Governor Whitmer issued Executive Order 2020-21, adopting the "Stay Home, Stay Safe" strategy already declared by a number of states and soon to be followed by more.

- March 27-29, 2020 No Chicago!!! What might have been? No one can say, except people did miss out on the cool T-shirts. Below is the design for this year:

Some possible things to do while staying home:

- invent a six-foot proximity alert that people can use to keep their distance from anyone who might be a SARS-CoV-2 carrier
- lots of churches are meeting digitally, but how about a creative and safe way to "meet together" in person (Hebrews 10:25); is this a time to rethink what our role in the gospel is—as the weather is warming up, can church be two families on either side of the backyard fence worshipping together?
- go outside and be active, exercise, recreate (see E.O. 2020-21 § 7.a.1)
- grab some chalk and draw a message of hope and joy in Jesus on your driveway
- pray for government leaders to have wisdom to make good decisions (1 Timothy 2:2)
- have a plan for daily reading God's word to you in Scripture
