Day of Champions Tournament

Stony Creek Little League 1-2 in first season

Marimont rather dominated in its six preliminaries, going undefeated and averaging a 57-point margin of victory. But one thing it did not face in its two encounters with the Stony Creek teams was the season top quizzier and the day's top quizzier both putting in a sterling performance. Assuming that scenario would play out in the Finals, how could you guess the outcome—it's like trying to decide what will happen when an irresistible force meets an immovable object.

Marimont's Toby Peterson was first to score and froze his chair on question 9. The day's top quizzier, Jars' Olivia Mangas, was next to score and froze without error on question 10. The season top quizzier, Vipers' Clifton Leslie, grabbed every toss-up following three Marimont errors to freeze without error on question 12A. The score was then 60-70-70.

When 13 went to Jars' Lily Blum, Marimont's rookies were under extreme pressure—down 30, they needed to get both remaining questions to win. When that didn't work out on 14, they still needed to get 15 for second place, but that also did not work out.

Following a Jars error on 17, Bella Spencer got the toss-up for the Vipers victory, and Stony Creek Church had a champion and runner-up in its first year of quizzing.

Host Marimont 1 and 3 in Varsity Finals

If ever there was an argument for a three-way tie for first place, these three teams and their captains presented it for both the team and individual rankings. The feel of these Finals from the get go was that they were a tie-breaker, and that is how they played out.

Gold's Owen Parker quickly scored twice. Cordelia Fike put Lake Pointe on the board. Myrrh's Katie Baugh then scored twice. Score after 6: 40-20-40.

Owen froze without error, followed by Katie freezing without error. Katie got the first toss-up of the quiz for a mid-Finals lead, before Cordelia scored twice to freeze without error. Score after 12: 70-70-90.

The score completely evened out as Curtis Parker won question 13 for Gold, and Cordelia got the second toss-up of the quiz on 14A. So going into the final question of regulation it was all tied up at 90-90-90.

The atmosphere was electric as question 15 was started. Anna Sanchez nailed the jump and the answer, and Myrrh was mobbed by the front-row cheering section rushing the stage. Once that pandemonium was cleared, the tie-breaker for second got underway. Carmen Yonker claimed that spot for LP and put this season in the books.

Marimont Gold - 90; LP What do you want with us?- 100; Marimont Myrrh - 110

2021 Chicago Tournament

March 20, 2021

DBQ Jehoshaphat

DBQ Zadok

One year after the COVID-19 epidemic resulted in shutdowns that closed the 2020 Chicago Tournament, ongoing restrictions did not stop this year's edition. Seven teams from Michigan and one each from Indiana, Ohio and Pennsylvania convened for a single Varsity division contest.

When the morning session ended, there was a perfect DBQ sandwich, with DBQ Jehoshaphat on top (and undefeated), DBQ Zadok smack in the middle, and DBQ Zerubbabel underneath.

In the afternoon session, Jehoshaphat quizzed immediately into the Finals. Zadok took three quizzes to edge out the morning's #2 and #4 teams and take the last seat in the Finals.

In the Finals, Jehoshaphat displayed no rust from its two-round break from quizzing and quickly tallied the first 70 points of the quiz through question 7 on two scores from Owen Parker, one from Cordelia Fike and a freebie answered by Sam Hatfield.

By question 15, Jehoshaphat had pushed its lead to 110 points on another score from Owen and two from Cordelia, as Berrien got a score and so did Zadok's Sophia Fike.

Zadok's Katie Baugh took question 16, but Berrien immediately tied and took the next two to lock up second place. Zadok's Victoria Edwards took the last question for the only third-person bonus in the quiz.

DBQ Jehoshaphat–120, Berrien Holy Unprepared–80, DBQ Zadok–70
